

SCOTLAND SHORTLIST

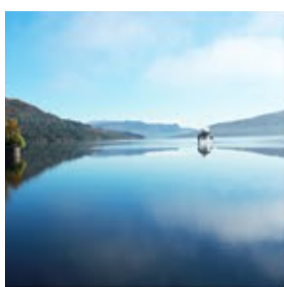

DUNVEGAN CASTLE

Dunvegan Castle,
Midlothian,
Scotland.

Tick when you've visited!

This gem has historical value, beautiful walks and can be visited in all the different seasons. It's a hidden treat for anyone to visit and enjoy.

LOCH KATRINE

Trossachs,
area of the Scottish Highlands,
Stirling District

A lovely hidden backwater, along a freshwater Loch in the heart of the Lomond & Trossachs National Park. Ideal to visit in all seasons but best on a beautiful clear cloudless autumn day when the Loch is as still as a millpond, the trees just starting to turn colours, and while where you can wait for the wonderful old steamship SS Sir Walter Scott to make its way out of the ethereal mist on the Loch. The Loch is guarded by the mountains and hills, buzzards, and a golden eagle, that all patrol this stunning place. A hidden watery gem, take the boat trip on the Loch, which is said to be a wonderful experience.

LOCH LOMOND

Loch Lomond & The Trossachs,
National Park Carrochan
Carrochan Road,
Balloch

Loch Lomond has the most beautiful scenery and can be a special place for everyone. A beautiful part of Scotland which is perfect in all kinds of weather and always has something new to see. The views are spectacular!

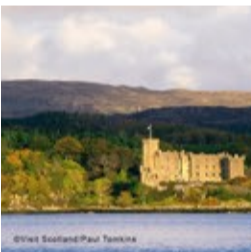

EMBO BEACH

Embo,
Sutherland,
IV25 3QD

The clean, white sands of Embo beach are backed by a range of stunning sand dunes, with a network of paths to enjoy and a good place to see the spectacular burnet rose. In low tide look out for the ancient anchor rising from the sands, thought to be from a Prussian barque 'Vesta' wrecked in 1876.

SCOTLAND SHORTLIST

DUNVEGAN CASTLE

Dunvegan Castle,
Isle of Skye,
Clan Macleod,
